The Centre for Information Policy Leadership Working Group Meeting

Artificial Intelligence and Data Protection:
Delivering Sustainable AI Accountability in Practice

Hunton & Williams, Room 942
2200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20037
28 March 2018 | 13:00 – 15:30

AGENDA

Lunch will be served at this meeting.

1. Introductions and welcome
    ❖ Bojana Bellamy, President, Centre for Information Policy Leadership
    ❖ Fred Cate, Senior Policy Advisor, Centre for Information Policy Leadership | Professor, Indiana University

2. Overview of project scope, goals, and process
    ❖ Fred Cate, Senior Policy Advisor, Centre for Information Policy Leadership | Professor, Indiana University

3. Key topics for member input
    a. Specific examples of AI benefits
    b. Specific examples of AI benefits for privacy
    c. Specific examples of data protection challenges (legal or ethical) faced when implementing AI
    d. Specific examples of approaches to managing AI challenges
    e. Other

4. Other organizations or individuals who should be consulted

5. Other issues

6. Next steps

Project Timeline

Phase 1: Develop white paper with CIPL members (part I), focusing on scope of AI Project.
o March 28: AI project committee meeting to review draft and provide further input (Washington, DC)
o April: First discussion draft of AI White Paper
o June 1: White paper (part I) completed

Phase 2: Discuss with regulators/policy makers; Complete white paper (part II).
o June 27: Meeting of all interested members at CIPL Special Retreat with APPA Regulators (San Francisco)
o September – October: Small group meetings with key regulators (e.g. DC, London, Europe)
o October 22 – 26: Side event to ICDPPC (Brussels)
o November 16: AI workshop (Singapore)
o December 15: White paper (part II) completed

Phase 3: Socializing the white papers with regulators/policy makers; identify topics for further development.