

Centre for Information Policy Leadership (CIPL) Roundtable

CIPL Roundtable on the EU Commission Assessment List of the Ethics Guidelines for Trustworthy AI - Under Chatham House Rule -

Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP | Meeting Rooms 2, 3 & 4
Park Atrium, Rue des Colonies 11
1000 Brussels
Thursday, 27 June 2019 | 12:00 – 16:30

AGENDA

- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:00 Opening Remarks
- ❖ Bojana Bellamy, President, Centre for Information Policy Leadership
- 13:15 Presentation of the Assessment list and Piloting Phase
- ❖ Nathalie Smuha, Coordinator of the HLEG on AI, DG Connect, EU Commission
 - ❖ Andrea Renda, Senior Research Fellow and Head of Global Governance, Regulation, Innovation & Digital Economy, CEPS
- 13:45 Presentation of the ICO AI Auditing Framework
- ❖ Ali Shah, Head of Technology Policy, ICO
- 14:00 Constructive feedback on the Assessment List
- Participants will provide feedback on the assessment list and in particular as regards its usefulness, relevance, completeness, implementability, governance, interoperability or conflict with other frameworks and scope for improvement.*
- Discussions will include general feedback on the assessment list as well as a deep-dive into selected topics (The questions below aim to facilitate a structured discussion on the assessment list).*
- Privacy and data governance
 - Transparency
 - Non-discrimination and fairness
 - Accountability
- 16:30 End of Roundtable